Many knew Ronald as Ron, Ronnie, or Clipper. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and brother who cherished his family and friends deeply. He was both honored and recognized during his 20 years of service as a patrol officer, detective, and sergeant for the Westchester County Police Department. After retiring from the police department, and moving to North Carolina, Ron began his second career in the home building industry where he used his love of finance and construction. Upon retiring, Ron and Linda bought a second home in Florida where he loved golfing and spending time with family and friends. He took delight in spending time outdoors gardening, twig picking his immaculate yard, and relaxing in his hot tub. Ron also enjoyed watching his grandchildren play sports both in person and on his iPad. Ron loved his iPad, especially how it connected him with family and friends. He enjoyed telling stories, sharing memories, and socializing with others. Ron was always optimistic and smiling. Everyone who knew him, loved him and his charming personality.

RB

“ My wife and I met Ron and Linda shortly after we moved to Eaglewood at Hobe Sound, Florida. It truly was a blessing to have them as friends. Both Ron and I, and Linda and Pam shared many common interest which made our friendship even better. We enjoyed hearing the many stories that Ron shared during his past life as a policeman. Ron and I always talked about golf and how we just missed that putt by millimeter. One memory I won't forget is the many times that Linda would make a pizza, from scratch, and Ron would bake it on his weber grill, to perfection (see attached picture). We will cherish the memories of our friendship.
