

Sadie Yates Jones

November 15, 1927 - March 24, 2019

Sadie Yates Jones, 91, was called home to be with the Lord on Sunday following a brief illness.

Mrs. Jones was a longtime member of Salem Baptist Church and active in the Salem Community until recent years. She was a talented artist proficient in woodworking, basket making, and crocheting. She loved gardening and cooking, and many of us enjoyed the fruits of her labor.

She is survived by her daughter: Margie Anderson Goodwin; son: Roy Anderson and wife Shirley; grandsons: Danny Goodwin and wife Carolyn, and Noah Anderson; great grandchildren: Jessica, Ashley and Carson Goodwin.

Mrs. Jones is preceded in death by her 1st husband, George W. Anderson, Jr; her 2nd husband, Maynard Jones; stepson, Gary Jones; son, Cecil Anderson. The family will receive friends from 11:00 am to 12:00 PM Wednesday, 27, 2019 at Salem Baptist Church. A celebration of life will be held at 12 Noon at Salem Baptist Church.

“ Roy, Shirley and Marjorie , we are so sorry for your loss. Sadie will be missed by many. You are lucky to have had her with you for so many years. Her mountain friends will always have fond memories of Sadie and Maynard. Both Sadie and Maynard helped us out for many years at the campground and we appreciate their contribution. Sincerely , The Miller family and campers of Miller's Camping, Laurel Springs, NC
