November 27, 1927 - June 10, 2021

Sybil Hurst entered the gates of Heaven on June 10, 2021. Sybil was born and raised in Wake County and was the daughter of Foy and Lela Yeargan and Bessie Yeargan who all preceded her in death. Sybil was also preceded in death by her husband Norman R. Hurst, sister, Juanita Nutt, brothers, Leonard Yeargan, Nello Yeargan and Ira Goodwin. Sybil is survived by her son, Gary R. Hurst of Cary, sisters, Laverne Ellis, Eva Lloyd (Mike), Lela McCarson and brothers, Felton Yeargan (Bonnie) and Pete Goodwin (Wyonne). Sybil is also survived by many special nieces and nephews. Sybil was a lifelong member of Good Hope Baptist Church and especially loved Church Choir Music. People would know she was present at service when they heard her shout "Beautiful, Beautiful" after the choir had sang. Sybil worked and retired from the Durham Herald Sun Newspaper Company after many years of service.

The family would like to thank The Oaks of Raleigh for their care of Sybil for the past year and half, and thanks to Dr. Dunlap for his loving care and bedside manner while Sybil was at The Oaks.

There will be a service honoring Sybil's memory on Thursday, June 17, 2021 at Good Hope Baptist Church in Cary in the Family Life Center. The family will receive friends from 12:00 pm to 1:00 pm prior to the service that will begin at 1:00 pm. The graveside will be in Good Hope Baptist Church cemetery. “ Mrs Hurst always made me happy when she greeted me with her smile and enthusiasm. Her love of Christ was so evident by the bright light she shined at all times and the love she showed to everyone. We send our condolences. Terri and Jerry Hamm and family.

“ Remembering all the family and with love from Ina and Dan Rhew. Miss Sybil was one of our favorites. She was something special that set her apart from most. If only one of us could get into heaven, she would be the one.
