“ I only met Mrs. Boginsky once but I experienced her legacy of love and patience through her daughter Bernadette. I know she must have been a grand lady because of her selflessness in the care of her granddaughter Aurora. Godspeed Mrs. Theresa. Thank you for your influence.

“ She sent me Many packages during my time studying abroad in college. I would get so homesick and when she sent all the Philly essentials to make me feel better, it worked! She was so thoughtful and a wonderful step mother. I am so lucky to have had her in my life

Someone mentioned that Terri was selfless, and that describes her perfectly. Her son Dave and my grandson Nick became friends through the sports they played. Terri opened her heart and home to Nick. She had a big and giving heart. She was a good friend of mine. My heart goes out to Bernadette and Dave and to all who loved Terri.
