“ Dear Riesett Family, I just saw that your beloved Tom has passed away. I am so sorry for your loss. Although I haven't seen you in years. My early high school years hanging around your house and family I always had fun. My best memory of Tom is this. AT the time Nancy being my BFF being freshmen at Marshall and Tom a Junior we wanted to go to the Friday night football game. Tom had a date and Mrs. Riesett said "He" had to also take Nancy and myself. OH boy, he wasn't happy. We climb in the back. His girl in the front. The rules are . NO talking and he doesn't even want to hear us breathing. LOL. We get there and we have a certain time to be back or he leaves us. Of course we believe him..... oh big brothers. I just want to express to all of you my fond memories of my time with your family. again so very sorry for your loss. Page Seits Boothby

Tom on July 20,2001. We wouldn't have celebrated our wedding without him! I love the way Mark and Tom called each other "Cous" - they were so much alike at times.

“ Dear Riesett family,

The first time I ever met Tom was when I visited Bob and Sonja Hallberg with my grandmother, Britta Johnson. There were a bunch of boys playing football on a lawn across from the Riesett house. Allan Hallberg introduced me to Tom. Many years passed and my college roommate was getting married. Come to find out, the wedding I'd be singing for was Tom and Sue's! What a coincidence I'd met her husband before she had.

Then came Patrick. Tom was so very proud to be a husband and a father.

My memories of Tom are simply he was always interested in what was going on in my life and how I was doing. He truly liked people and wanted to make people happy.

Another memory....and maybe I'll call this one "Tom the Prognosticator". I remember visiting Tom and Sue one Saturday afternoon, when they lived on Buchanan Street and Tom talked about the new TV they'd purchased. Tom said, "one day you'll be able to buy things over the TV". WHAT? ARE YOU KIDDING ME? I rest my case. Look at us now!

Tom was sweet, polite and a very likable guy. I loved his freckles and reddish hair.

I'm so sorry for your loss. He was too young.

I pray that God will give you all strength, peace and good memories to comfort you through this difficult time, and, that you'll remember Tom with happy hearts. He will remember you until you're joined again in God's kingdom.

God's love and peace be with you.

With my deepest sympathy,

“ Pat, Johnny, Claudia, Matt and Nancy,
My most sincere condolences to all of you. I have been trembling with grief yet flooded with loving memories of Tom all week. We all wanted Tom to be whole. Tom had so many strengths.....his kindness, intelligence, jovial mannerisms, impeccable attire, creativeness, direct and outspoken, polite, and a tremendous love for his family, all of us.

I remember two heroic acts; the time our Annandale townhouse neighbors' house caught fire and Tom rushed in to help the young mother and her three infants get out of the house; and the time our home had a grease fire that engulfed the kitchen within seconds and Tom single handedly put the flames out seriously burning his hands and arms in the process. If I was stranded on a boat or in a life threatening situation, I would want Tom with me. Tom aspired to greatness all his life.

December 2nd is fitting for his Memorial service. December 2nd is the date of Grandfather and Grammy Pat's union in marriage, it is Patrick's birth date, and it is the date that Chad and Abbey were baptized. Ironically, February 27th was the date of my mothers' funeral.

I am thankful for the time Tom and I were together and I am thankful that Tom is the father to my children. We can all share his likeness in each of them. My parents too loved Tom dearly. We must remember it is not our will, but thy will be done. Peace be with each of you.

Love,
Sue
