“ Her first granddaughter, Aaisley.. she loved mom so much and will be very sad to hear the news she is gone. from the beginning her and mom were like best friends. My mom doesnt like most kids but she LOVED her Aaisley.. Right before she passed she told me she wants to be closer to me so she can spend more time with her. Everytime we visited she had her presents and she slept with mom after she read her bedtime stories

“ I would love a camp fire to talk you kids about your mom ,Your mom was so incredible, so beautiful and so smart, a rare combination,, and yet so loving and compassionate, yet like a lioness so protective of her children. I can say is what I saw and heard and watched,,i put away the pettiness, I see a mom who loved and yet struggled, but in my eyes never lost the balance of her and her kids, we all have stories but your mom made me grown when I didn't think growth was ever going to happen , she opened my eyes, to life,, not a single person other than my mother and grandmother has ever been able to reach me , like Valerie a special human being and forever in my heart,,, peace out val till we meet again,,,you are loved her so much , thanks for that special first meeting and your energy for live . val was the most beautiful women in my eyes...I am so sad for you kids but I know her love for you was boundless,,,it was a honor to love her , xox I am in disbelieve,,, such beauty gone way to soon
