

William Jennings Booth Jr.

July 10, 1934 - September 21, 2024

William Jennings “Bill” Booth was born in Apex beside the Apex Lumber Company on July 10, 1934. He graduated from Apex High School and then proudly attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill on a Navy ROTC scholarship. While attending UNC-Chapel Hill, he became a letterman on the UNC Track and Field team. After receiving his degree, he spent two years of active duty in the Pacific as a commissary officer on the USS Roanoke. After discharge from active duty, Bill returned to Apex and ran Apex Lumber Company until he retired in 2000. While running Apex Lumber Company and raising a family, he continued his Navy career as a reserve officer, retiring as a Commander.

He married Mary Lou Norwood in 1959 and had 3 children: Billy and wife, Vickie; Linda Colhoun and husband, Tom; and Jennifer Schmitt and husband Mike. He cherished his 5 grandchildren, Camma Barnhill and husband Van, Will Booth, Elizabeth Pinnix and husband Brett, Meredith Colhoun and Samantha Schmitt. He also had 2 great-grandchildren that he loved: Mary Bennett and Evelyn Bea Barnhill.

His contribution to Salem Baptist Church, the Apex’s Lions Club, Apex Jaycees, the Apex Community and most of all his family will long be remembered.
