

William Richard Newman

October 9, 1931 - May 18, 2022

William Richard Newman, 90 of Cary, North Carolina passed away peacefully at his home on Wednesday May 18, 2022. William was born October 9, 1931 in City Island, New York to Robert A and Maude P Newman. Bill married his loving wife Carol Jean of 66 years on March 25, 1956.

William was a faithful follower of his Lord Jesus Christ and was a member of Cary Alliance Church in Cary, North Carolina.

William was a System's Analyst until his retirement. He loved and enjoyed spending time with his wife, family and friends. He was an accomplished pine needle basket weaver and teacher having won many awards for his craft. He also enjoyed writing poetry and writings that expressed his deep faith.

William is survived by his wife, Carol Jean; his son Richard (Lisa), and daughter; Jeanne (Dan) Reppert; and daughter; Debbie (Scott) Cornelius. He is also survived by his grandchildren; Melissa, Maria, Kelsey, Lily (James), Annabelle (Steven), Nicolas and Lindsay, his great granddaughter Ellie and nieces and nephews.

William was the youngest of three children. Preceding him in death was sister, Belle Newman, and brother, Robert A Newman.

Loving husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather he will always be in our hearts and we join him in the certainty that we will see him "again together with the Lord".

“ My mom and Carol were penpals since they were kids. It was such an honor to visit their home in North Carolina a while back. Kind, gracious, blessed couple. I loved learning about his incredible basket making. I hope Carol and my mom can reconnect. A life well lived. Lonna Schwartz, daughter of Carol Graner
